We wish to have every lady in town call and inspect our Sterling vacuum cleaner. It will surely lift the dust out of your carpets and rugs if you will give it a chance. We will be pleased to demonstrate this vacuum sweeper in your own homes if you will leave your request for a demonstration when intending to purchase.

This sweeper will make a suitable Christmas gift for any lady. It is finished on white enamel and mahogany color and presents a very dainty appearance. It is similar in appearance to the ordinary carpet sweeper, and is as easily handled. The price is moderate.

You will find a sample on our counters. Let us order one for you for Christmas.

Henry Levin, of Joffroy & Levin, the commission agents, has returned from a visit down the west coast of Mexico, as far as Mazatlan, Sinaloa.

Thursday 150 bars of silver bullion from one of the big mines near Alamos, Sonora, were shipped by express to San Francisco. A nice little fortune.

Nothing better for that growing boy than a Base Ball, Bats and Mitts. We have them all. Most reasonable prices, at the International Drug Store.

When in Guaymas, don't fail to stop at Hotel Almada, headquarters for foreigners visiting the bay city. Only strictly American hotel in Guaymas.

Yesterday Jack Straith, owner of the Golden Rose mining camp, was a business visitor in the city. Jack says he'll make a stake yet, out of the Rose.

John Higginbotham, of Carbo Sonora, passed south yesterday en route home from El Paso, where he had been on a combined business and pleasure visit.

Thursday John E. McIntyre, the mining engineer, went to Tucson, making the cross country trip in his new automobile recently received from Chicago.

Tuesday Senator J. A. Harrison crossed a bunch of five hundred Sonora steers. The cattle will be placed in his pasture and fattened for the spring market.

Mark Wanless, the Hermosillo ore buyer, accompanied by Mrs. Wanless and one of their little boys, after spending a day here shopping, returned home today.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Farrell were visitors in the city yesterday from their ranch near Mowry. Recently Nick bought a big bunch of Sonora cattle for his home range.

Thursday W. G. Bowman brought twenty-three carloads of beef cattle across the line from Sonora. Yesterday he shipped the cattle to Sacramento, California.

Pedro Trelles, the Magdalena civil and mining engineer, came up from the south last evening, and after transacting some private business will return to the garden city today.

Nicholas J. Kunny, Secretary of the Float Gold Amalgamating Company, accompanied by Mrs. Kunny, came in from the mines the forepart of the week for a couple of days visit in town.

Last Wednesday General Enciso the rebel leader, escaped from the jail at Hermosillo and at last reports had not been recaptured. Friends of Enciso here believe he will come to the United States.

George Januel, the expert German barber, on Morley Ave., in Brickwood building, guarantees his work, and respectfully invites you to give him a trial. Everything neat and clean. Hair Cutting a specialty.

Pete Ross, of Llano, Sonora, owner of valuable gold and copper mining properties, was a business visitor in the city a couple of days this week, from the south. Pete says his mines are for sale cheap.

Yesterday Mr. W. G. Bowman, who is now extensively engaged in the cattle business, left for California, where he yesterday shipped a trainload of beef cattle. Mrs. Bowman and Miss Edna accompanied him.

Jack Price, of the Santa Cruz Patagonian, was a business visitor at the county seat a couple of days this week. He says his new weekly will make its appearance on schedule time. We wish the youngster success.

The young chap from New Mexico who yesterday flim-flamed Father Duval out of seventy-five dollars, was arrested last evening by Sheriff McKnight, and is now in the county jail. The good father endorsed the young man's check at Banco de Sonora.

George Wise, nephew of J. E. Wise the Calabas stockraiser, left yesterday for his old home in Pennsylvania, expecting to arrive in time for that big turkey Christmas dinner. After the holidays George will return to Arizona.

WANTED—Three Hundred (300) men—to work on the railroad. Transportation furnished free from Phoenix to Cedar Glade. For further particulars call or address the Santa Fe Railroad Company, Phoenix, Arizona.

S. M. Franklin, one of Arizona's most brilliant, successful attorneys-at-law, was here several days this week from Tucson, his home. Mr. Franklin is the legal representative of a big mining company having business in superior court.

Todd Woodworth and his partner, Mr. Layne, owners of the great Austerlitz mines in the Oro Blanco mining district, registered at the Montezuma hotel yesterday. They report everything out in the old mining district looking fine.

State Mine Inspector Farrell, who owns a valuable gold mine in Sonora, came up from the south Thursday evening and yesterday continued on north. He brought with him a number of beautiful specimens of gold taken from his mine.

Reports from Los Angeles are to the effect that Ed. Massey, the Magdalena mining man, is near death's door. Dr. Mabry of Imuris and Mrs. Massey are with the sick man, who went to Los Angeles several months ago to consult specialists.

C. T. Tryon, the well known Sonora mining man, has purchased the Narcissus and the Oceanic mines situated in the Arivaca district. Mr. Tryon's friends here and throughout Sonora will join in wishing him success with his newly acquired property.

Manager A. M. Conard of the Sonora Copper Smelting Company, this morning returned to Cobre Grande. Mr. Conard says conditions in his section are greatly improved and early next year he hopes to be able to resume operations in the mine and start up the smelter.

I. E. Bowers, mine and ranch owner of Noria, Sonora, spent a couple of days in the city this week. Mr. Bowers recently sold a part of his land to California parties, who realize that never in the history of the country can land be bought in Mexico cheaper than at the present time.

Colonel R. R. Richardson, of Patagonia who with his partner A. E. Crepin, sold the great Three R mine to N. L. Amster, the Boston-Globe millionaire, was a business visitor in the city the forepart of the week, from Patagonia. Colonel Richardson has a host of friends here who are always glad to see him.

Mrs. D. P. Snelling of Nogales last week won the $50. cash prize in the Tucson Citizen contest, she having secured the most votes during the one week. Mrs. Snelling is one of the best hustlers in the world; friends here and throughout Sonora, hope she'll win the big $700.00 prize. Monday she returned home from Guaymas and other points in Sonora.

Yesterday Mr. Ed. Lanier, proprietor of The Palace, departed for his old home in Kansas to spend the holidays with his aged parents, whom he has not seen for five years. He was accompanied by his wife. During Mr. Lanier's absence from the city, Joe Dupuy will be in charge of the big wet goods emporium on Morley avenue. He will be assisted by Mr. Burdick.

This morning Colonel Kosterlitzky with one hundred and twenty-five men, left for Cananea, by special train, taking their mounts with them. While no trouble is looked for at the big copper camp as a result of the strike in the mines, the governor of Sonora is taking no chances, hence the hurried departure of Colonel Kosterlitzky and his rough riders this morning.

News that Colonel James A. Murray, the Butte, Montana multi-millionaire mining man, has become financially interested in Santa Cruz county mining property, will be learned with pleasure by everyone interested in Santa Cruz county's future. Men like Colonel Murray mean much for any section in which they invest their money, and we are glad to welcome them to Santa Cruz county.

County Attorney Noon and Sheriff McKnight are making a strenuous effort to have the three escaped convicts brought back from Mexico, but they are still in the Nogales, Sonora jail. Yesbit, the American soldier who pled guilty of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to ten years in the state penitentiary, has been turned over to Sheriff McKnight and is again in the county jail.

Lee Reagan, manager of the Yaqui River Consolidated Gold & Copper Company, who for some time past has been in Texas on business connected with his big mining company, is enjoying a visit at home with Mrs. Reagan and the children. Since Campa and his bunch of looters cleaned out the company's mining camp, the property has been idle but manager Reagan hopes soon to resume active operations.

H. M. Claggett, of Roy & Titcomb Inc., has returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to Pittsburg and other points of interest in the east. While in Pittsburg he closed a big deal with the directors of the Penn-Arizona Mining Company, owners of the old Durazno gold mines out near Planchas de Plata, on which a big reduction plant will in the near future be erected by Roy & Titcomb Inc., of this city.

Yesterday Elgin B. Holt, the silver king of Sonora, accompanied by his chief lieutenant, A. E. Reddoch, arrived from Cerro de Plata with twenty-seven thousand ounces of silver bullion, which will today be sent by Wells Fargo Express to San Francisco. The big consignment of white metal, represents a month's run of the splendid plant installed by Roy & Titcomb Inc., of this city. Everybody will be pleased to know that the Holt boys, Elgin and Walter, have struck a sure enough bonanza. The boys are white through and through, and deserve success.

This week J. Wells Smith of Los Angeles, purchased from Messrs. Brown and Cully, their interest in the Havalena Mining Company. Before departing for the coast, Mr. Smith stated that arrangements were being made to develop the company's property on a big scale. The company has a strong treasury and unlimited cash to put the mines on a dividend-paying basis. Several months ago the Copper Queen people offered $150,000.00 for the mines owned by the company. Now Colonel James A. Murray of Butte, Montana, has become interested with Mr. Smith, who knows the value of the property.

Announcement that S. L. Pattee, who has been associated with Eugene S. Ives in the practice of law, will leave Tucson for Douglas early next year and associate himself with D. A. Richardson, a prominent attorney of that city, has been made by Attorney Richardson. Mr. Pattee is a member, and the sole member, of the code commission, having been appointed by Governor Hunt. His report will be made to the next state legislature. Mr. Pattee came here from Prescott where a number of years ago was associated with E. E. Ellinwood, chief counsel at Bisbee for the Copper Queen Mining company.—Star.
